WILLIAMS Moving International

In 1929, Williams Moving was established in Vancouver, B.C. by George Williams. Today, 70 years and four generations later, the Williams Group of companies is the largest and foremost family-owned moving company in Canada. Williams' proven success has come from diligently following the vision and service commitment of its founding fathers. Their long-standing philosophy has always been "A commitment to personalized service, care for all employees and to deliver what is promised without exception". As a proud pioneer in the preservation of the environment, Williams continues to explore the frontiers of the moving industry. Consistent, outstanding service and a solid reputation makes Williams the superior choice for your moving requirements. Their family of over 400 dedicated employees will ensure that your move is carried out professionally and with care.
